

The Punctuator's Bookshelf

When the Punctuator is ready to relax and have some fun, he likes to read books about robots and giants. Also among his favorite books are those about grammar and punctuation. Not only are they fun to read, but they also come in handy when the Punctuator is tuning up his trusty grammar-ray!

Ages 4-8

- The Amazing Pop-Up Grammar Book by Jennie Maizels and Kate Petty
- Hello, Robots! by Bob Staake
- Punctuation Celebration by Elsa Knight Bruno
- Punctuation Takes a Vacation by Robin Pulver
- The Robot and the Bluebird by David Lucas
- Robots Everywhere by Todd Hoffman
- Sammy and the Robots by Ian Whybrow
- The Spiffiest Giant in Town by Julia Donaldson
- Twenty-Odd Ducks: Why, Every Punctuation Counts! by Lynne Truss
- When Giants Come to Play by Andrea Beaty

Ages 9-12

- A Giant Problem by Holly Black
- The BFG by Roald Dahl
- How to Build Your Own Prize-Winning Robot by Ed Sobey
- The Iron Giant by Ted Hughes
- Miss Myrtle Frag, the Grammar Nag by LaWanda Bailey
- Pet Robots by Scott Christian Sava
- Robots by Clive Gifford
- The Saddest Little Robot by Brian Gage
- The Secret History of Giants by Ari Berk
- Your Very Own Robot by R.A. Montgomery

For more reproducibles, please visit www.bookitprogram.com.

The Pizza Hut name, logo and other related marks are trademarks of Pizza Hut, Inc.